

LANGUAGE
SCHOOLS

WWW.ILSC.COM

English for Performing Arts Mastery

AVAILABLE IN VANCOUVER

- Develop a balance of speaking and writing skills
- Bring your language to life
- Transform written language skills into everyday spoken English
- Expand your spoken and written vocabulary using a range of powerful speech production techniques
- Work intensively on English language fluency and accuracy

ENTRY REQUIREMENT

ILSC Intermediate 2

LENGTH

2 sessions of Full-Time Intensive study.

Availability of courses is subject to student enrollment.

Length may vary depending on student progress.

AM 3 HOUR CLASS

PM 1.5 HOUR CLASS

DESCRIPTION

The English for Performing Arts Mastery provides a suggested combination of courses to guide you from working with the written word to the spoken word with increased confidence and fluency. Adopt English speaking culture by embracing the tones, the colours, and the passion of the language! Find your English voice by progressing from shorter to longer written pieces, from dialogues to storytelling, radio, theatre and onward to theatrical or filmmaking productions.

REQUIRED AM COURSES

CHOOSE TWO OF THE FOLLOWING AM CLASSES

AM CREATIVE ENGLISH—ACTING

Your English will improve dramatically as you spend four exciting weeks in the ILSC acting class, performing and directing 10 minute plays and monologues. Language comes to life in this collective process that combines teamwork, creativity and passion. You will challenge your critical thinking skills as well as language skills; pronunciation, vocabulary and fluency. No previous acting experience is necessary.

AM CREATIVE ENGLISH—FILM

Lights camera and action are all a part of this filmmaking intensive that explores how films are successfully marketed through the medium of Movie Trailers. You'll have the opportunity to write, direct, shoot and edit movie trailers. Language comes to life as you go on set with a collective process that combines teamwork, creativity and passion. You'll learn the basics of digital video while applying your English skills to all production and performance roles. Improve critical thinking skills, through discussion and team-building in a simulated work environment. No previous filmmaking experience is necessary.

AM CREATIVE ENGLISH—WRITING TO SPEAKING

Develop writing techniques for different purposes, informal and formal presentation skills and expand spoken English skills through storytelling, radio style Mystery Theatre and descriptive conversation.

REQUIRED PM COURSES

CHOOSE FOUR OF THE FOLLOWING PM CLASSES

PM ENGLISH THROUGH MEDIA STUDIES

Take this course if you are interested in developing your English skills through exploring media, social media and their impact on society. You will analyze both the structure and context of newspapers, magazines, television, radio and the Internet.

PM GRAMMAR

Improve your usage of standard English grammar.

PM VOCABULARY

Intensive reading, speaking and writing activities will help you build your formal and informal vocabulary, including idioms and slang.

PM ENGLISH FOR ADVERTISING MEDIA

Develop your language skills by reviewing, discussing and analyzing global TV commercials and advertising trends. The primary focus of the class is commercial advertising production through writing, directing and filming a short TV commercial.

PM ENGLISH THROUGH YOGA

Develop English listening skills as you learn to follow physical instructions accurately while mastering the vocabulary of anatomy and movement. Gain physical strength, flexibility and stress management skills.

PM ENGLISH THROUGH ART

Explore the language of art, art criticism and art production. Practise English through drawing, painting, sculpting, writing in a creative journal and visiting art exhibits around the city. No previous art experience necessary.

LEVEL REQUIREMENT

B1

B2

B3

B4

I1

I2

I3

I4

A1

A2

B=Beginner I=Intermediate A=Advanced