"The problems we face today, violent conflicts, destruction of nature, poverty, hunger and so on, are human-created problems which can be resolved through human effort, understanding and the development of a sense of brotherhood and sisterhood. We need to cultivate a universal responsibility for one another and the planet we share."

- Dalai Lama

DESCRIPTION

The English through Global Social Responsibility Mastery provides a suggested combination of courses to help you develop strategies for critical thinking by engaging you in controversial issues and contemporary topics. You will be asked to delve deeper into presentation skills, debate, action planning and leadership. Academic writing skills will round out your overall language skills.

3-HOUR COURSES

TAKE THE FOLLOWING 3-HOUR COURSES

ENGLISH THROUGH GLOBAL SOCIAL ISSUES

This course is designed to develop students' English language skills through the study of global issues. Improve fluency and build vocabulary by exploring and discussing contemporary social issues. Topics reflect global concerns such as women's and children's rights, health care, religion and environmental issues.

ENGLISH THROUGH GREEN LEADERSHIP

In this course, you will learn vocabulary, expand your listening and fluency skills, prepare, write and deliver presentations and expand your overall English language skills, while focusing on a combination of leadership and environmental topics. What can one person do? What can awareness bring us? How can we work together as a team to make change happen? Challenge yourself to discuss and reflect on the environmental issues current on the North West Coast of Canada.
